

Rules & Regulations

We invite independent media creators to submit their podcast for review by our independent panel of judges, as displayed on the IMA for Podcasters website. The review will culminate in the selection of three podcasts that might receive mentorship, services and funding to start their membership program. To take part, please use this form.

- You must be at least 18 years of age.
- You release your podcast on a regular basis.
- You have no affiliation to a traditional publishing company.
- You already have a community of listeners.

Three winners will be picked and receive:

- Free Consultation and assistance from Steady Media GmbH in creating and launching your membership offering.
- Free use of the Steady membership platform for a period of 6 months from the date of announcing the winners.

Additionally, if a winner:

- has created a public membership project at Steady,
- has promoted/communicated this membership project to its audience and
- has at least 3 paying members

he gets a EUR 2.500,00 “Start up Bonus” to help the Winner get their membership project off the ground. The “Start up Bonus” becomes payable with the second Steady payout and is subject to the Winner starting their membership project with Steady within 3 months of announcing the winners.

Steady will inform the public and the winners via social media channels and email about the chosen projects. Please check inbox (and spam filter) to avoid missing the good news.
